Presented by
CIANA

Sunday 17 January

The Barbican Exhibition Hall 1
London EC1

FAIR CATALOGUE

WELCOME TO THE JANUARY 2010 REMAINDER & PROMOTIONAL BOOK FAIR

The UK book market has proved remarkably resilient in the latter part of 2009 and shows encouraging signs of developing well over the next year, particularly with the increase in market share by independents.

In addition, the attraction of low-priced books selling out of a low-priced currency which the Pound now represents, has once again ensured healthy pre-registrations for the Fair, especially from both Eastern and Western Europe, Australia and the Far East.

Our January Fair which has now been running for 15 years is settled in the Barbican Exhibition Halls in the City of London, bringing a greater international flavour to this event from its previous location in Brighton, and it is now particularly well-positioned to fill the gap from the New Year until the spring book fairs in April and May.

An increasing number of US wholesalers now exhibit and all the indications are that the Fair will expand to match the size of our September Fair, held at the Business Design Centre in Islington North London.

The January Fair gives UK buyers the opportunity to restock after the Christmas and New Year sales, overseas buyers to purchase for the extended period leading up to the Spring season, and everyone to take advantage of the enormous facilities and entertainment London has to offer.

Details of the next CIANA events are on the back cover.

Our nominated shipping company Ocean World Lines (UK) Ltd (OWL for short) will be on hand to provide transport and shipping quotes and advice.

We are sure you will find the Barbican relaxing, interesting and profitable and thank you for your continued support.

Pre-registration for the September Fair is now available online at www.ciana.co.uk
